For Your Information

Member Discount: Campers who are part of an All-Inclusive Family Membership at the Levin JCC at the time of registration and participation are eligible for Member pricing. Member pricing does not apply to Summer, Cultural, or Individual/Couple Memberships. Questions about your membership: Contact the Welcome Center at 919-354-4936.

Inclusion Program: If your child has an IEP, 504, or receives services in or out of school, or if you are not sure if your child should be a part of our special needs Inclusion Program or would like more information, contact Madeline Seltman at mseltman@levinjcc.org or 919-354-4938. We are always accepting donations for this program, which serves 20-30 campers each summer.

Payment Plans: Payment plans are available and require a deposit of $50/camp week. Balances are due 3 weeks before the beginning of each camp week. You may set up recurring credit card payments or mail a check to make a payment. Financial aid applicants may make a $20/week deposit. The Financial Aid application can be found at levinjcc.org/camp.

Releases

Please read and sign off on each of the following agreements. Campers will not be enrolled unless all agreements are signed. Contact jlea@levinicc.org with any questions.

Behavior Agreement

Camp Shelanu is committed to providing an environment where all are welcome. While every camper brings with them unique qualities and needs, they will be required to interact and behave appropriately with both the staff and other campers. Every camper and staff member should be able to have fun while feeling valued, safe, and comfortable while at Camp Shelanu.

Campers must

1. Be respectful of campers and staff. This means following directions and refraining from physical or emotional harm towards others, including hitting, kicking, biting, threats, intimidation, swearing, lying, and refusing to listen to staff.
2. Be respectful of the grounds, facilities, and the belongings of others. No littering, vandalism, theft, or destruction.
3. Be safe. This means staying with the group or a staff member and avoiding behaviors that could be dangerous, such as running away, climbing where not permitted, self-harm, etc.

We will use positive behavior techniques that are developmentally appropriate to make sure that campers are following the rules of the program and the directions of the camp staff, including:

1. Visual and verbal reminders of the rules at camp
2. Compliments, encouragement, and praise for appropriate behavior
3. Redirection or personal time or use of a quiet space. This can be in the same room as other campers or in another room based on what their specific needs are at that time.
4. Discussion with camper about their behavior
5. Problem solving with camper
6. Separating campers
7. Staff offering appropriate choices to help camper make good decisions

Staff will NOT use, or threaten to use, any physical contact or restraint, unless the child presents a clear and present danger to themselves or to others. If with the use of these positive behavior management techniques, campers are unable to follow rules and behaving safely towards self and others, the following steps will occur. Other consequences may be implemented at the discretion of the Camp Manager.

First occurrence of inappropriate or unsafe behavior

1. Staff will ask camper to stop the behavior
2. Staff will use verbal or written communication to parent/guardian regarding child's behavior
3. Staff may remove camper from situation (take to quiet space or safe space)
4. Camper may lose privileges (e.g., pool time, purchasing snack bar items, field trips)
5. Staff may create an individual behavior/action improvement plan.
6. For serious infractions as determined by staff, staff may recommend or require parents to pick the camper up early and/or one or more days suspension with no refund

Second occurrence of inappropriate or unsafe behavior

1. Staff will ask camper to stop the behavior
2. Staff will remove camper from situation
3. Camper will lose privileges (e.g., pool time, purchasing snack bar items, field trips)
4. Staff will discuss concerns with parent/guardian and create an individual behavior/action improvement plan.
5. Parent/guardian will be asked to pick the camper up early, and camper may have one or more days suspension with no refund
6. For serious infractions as determined by staff, camper may be asked to leave the program with no refund

Liability Agreement

I understand that facilities and equipment used by Camp Shelanu have been inspected and carefully considered and found to be safe and reasonably suited for use.

I understand that, while every measure is taken to insure my child's safety in Camp Shelanu programs, from the recruitment, training and supervision of staff to the development of programs and maintenance of facilities and equipment, that camp includes physical activities such as sports during which my child may sustain minor injuries such as bumps, bruises, and scrapes in the course of regular play, and that more serious injuries are rare but possible.

I understand that field trip permission slips will be distributed the week before each trip and that I may opt my camper out of participation in a field trip if I choose.

I have read and understand the Liability Agreement.
